A superior 5-stars hotel for guests enjoying lakeview: Beau-Rivage Hotel in Neuchâtel

Since 2004 in private hands, the Beau-Rivage Hotel in Neuchâtel gives back some nobility back to a former prestigious residence, built in 1862 on the lakeshore. If the building has been fully restored in 1993, the actual owners are continuously updating the interior design in order to offer to their guest the utmost stylish and elegant conveniences. In addition to its 66 rooms and suites, the hotel have seven modern conference rooms, a Gourmet restaurant, a piano-bar, two terraces on the lakeshores as well as a wellness room, the B-Spa. Located in a region with numerous cultural or sporting activities, the Beau-Rivage Hotel is the ultimate destination for business and leisure all-year long.

Luxury rooms and suites

All 66 stylish and elegant rooms are a true invitation to relax and dream. Some of them even have beautiful balconies and terraces with a great view on the lake as well as on the Swiss Alps.

The Restaurant O'terroirs and the Véranda-Bar with unique lakeview

The philosophy of O'terroirs (16 points Gault Millau) is based on a return to the roots of a rich regional culinary heritage that also does the honours to Swiss dishes and to those from across the border. Our new Chef, Eric Mazéas, aims to give pride of place to true craftsmen and women, who are passionate about flavour and taste, and who are the very heart of an authentic regional cuisine - from the "terroir". The restaurant has two distinct areas: one shining white, with a large bay window facing Neuchâtel Lake and the Alps, seats 35 guests; the other a warm, cosy red, can cater for private functions of up to 45 guests. A glass showcase displays hand-picked, locally-produced wines within a painting. Every Sunday, you can enjoy a magnificent buffet-lunch with a large variety of hot and cold dishes, from elegant starters to delicious desserts.

The wine list has a broad selection of local specialities, and also includes some exceptional top quality international wines. With the arrival of milder, sunny days the restaurant opens its beautiful, perfectly located terrace overlooking the lake.
